

POWERTRUNK APPOINTS CHRISTOPHER RAMSDEN AS VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

New York City, NY — November 30, 2010 – PowerTrunk™ Inc., a global leader in Land Mobile Radio (LMR) design, manufacture and implementation, has appointed Christopher Ramsden as Vice President of Sales. Ramsden is an industry veteran with more than 25 years' experience building and driving sales in the land mobile radio and other telecom markets. His strong strategy and management skills will drive adoption of the PowerTrunk TETRA and P25 LMR products in the U.S. market.

Ramsden brings strong team leadership and organization skills coupled with an in-depth understanding of the market. Prior to joining PowerTrunk, Ramsden held senior sales and management positions in domestic and international companies ranging in size from start-up to Fortune 50. His experience at Raytheon, BellSouth, Kenwood, Relm, IPC and Motorola include many years in the LMR arena working directly with state and local government, utility and education customers, as well as developing multiple distribution channels.

“Chris is a proven executive with a strong track record of strategic sales planning and execution in the land mobile radio business,” said Jose Martin, COO of PowerTrunk. “With his knowledge and ability, Chris will be a guiding force in establishing customer relationships and business partnerships as we continue to expand into the U.S. market.”

Ramsden is a graduate Hope College in Michigan and also attended Colorado State University towards an M.Ed.
